Wealth Poem

"You can have great
Wealth a lot.

You can have great
Excuses why not.

But BOTH you cannot"

Inspired by that old axiom: In life in matters of success and wealth, you can either have Wealth or Excuses, but rarely can you have the pleasure of both. You can have one or the other. Your choices today determines your tomorrows.
